

8.4 Litter Pick The Council questioned the effectiveness of the current system of organising a litter pick in the village. It agreed to publicise on the notice board a proposed date of 10 o'clock on 11th May to gauge interest. Responses are to be passed to the clerk by 1st May after which a decision will be made whether to hold the litter pick if there are sufficient volunteers wishing to take part. 8.5 Nuisance parking in D'Albini Play Area The Council discussed at some length the unauthorised parking at the play area car park which continued to be a nuisance. The Council agreed in principle to put up a sign prohibiting all parking other than on a short term basis for users of the play area. Proposed Cllr Benson Seconded Cllr Green The Chair will research some ideas for signage.	Bus Service. The number of residents using the service had dipped slightly and it was hoped that the service from Stoke Albany to Corby on a Friday would be up and running shortly once the route had been registered. The Clerk reported that Northamptonshire County Council had pledged to match fund the service from its ring fenced grant from the Department of Transport which would allow the bus service to continue until March 2020.	DB
